Taya Barkarova (Kalimba, Singing, Reading) She is from Kremenchuk in central Ukraine, who is evacuating to Hokkaido with her mother and sister. She is a second-year high school student. She has been taking vocal lessons since she was 9 years old and now also plays the Kalimba. Her dream is to attend a music university and become a professional musician. This stage is the first step towards her dream."

Anna Karbovnycha (Harp, Reading, Interpreting) She was born and raised in Kyiv. She arrived in Sapporo in 2021, and is currently a PhD student at Hokkaido University in the field of Linguistics. She is passionate about learning languages and playing music instruments. Having graduated Kyiv Music School #33 (harp major), she is now challenging stage again after a long 5 years' break.

Tomomi Matsuura (Harp) She studied at Tokyo University of Arts (BA) and Queensland Conservatorium Griffith University (MA). Former member of The Queensland Orchestra. Winner of the Japan Harp Contest (Advanced Category), Philip Power Harp Scholarship Competition and its Best Performance Award.

Yuriya Kumagai (Reading, Singing with Harp, Interpreting, Translation) She is a conference interpreter, literary translator, and professor of English at Sapporo University. As a performance poet and former member of Sapporo Broadcasting Choir, she has performed internationally at poetry festivals and poets' congresses and held poetry concerts. She is a winner of several poetry prizes and author of 7 books of poetry.
